California Cocktail with U.S. Consulate
Chief Commercial Consul Andrew Wiegala and Team

California remains one of the most vibrant economies in the world as the 8th largest. California also constitutes over 13% of the United States GDP. As the region continues to feel the impacts of the global downturn, regional Chinese and Hong Kong firms are well positioned to explore new opportunity and avenues for greater stability and long term growth with U.S. counterparts. The CACHK has invited U.S. Chief Commercial Consul Andrew Wiegala and his team at the U.S. Consulate in Hong Kong for an informal discussion to explore U.S. opportunities, updates, as well as how to develop new business prospects through their programs and services.
