

CACHK 2007 Event Updates

On April 17, the CACHK organized a “Partnering with California” Seminar Co-Sponsored by the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce, Qualcomm, Wells Fargo Bank, University of Southern California, Salon Media, Wente Vineyards, and Variety Charity. The Panel included a distinguished line-up of speakers including Mr. Trent Decatur – Asia Business Network, Mr. Jing Wang, Chairman of Asia Pacific, QUALCOMM Incorporated, Tim Adam, Chief Financial Officer, The Walt Disney Company, China, Carson Wen, Partner, Jones Day, and Robert Theleen, Chairman and Co-CEO, ChinaVest. Moderated by CACHK President Janie Fong, the discussions were interactive and highlighted issues surrounding China’s expansion and investment climate for foreign investors, industry growth in the areas of technology, media, entertainment, biosciences, environmental and energy project opportunities. The dialogue highlighted updates surrounding the financial markets and foreign investment activity in China, excessive liquidity issues throughout China, and its outward investment trends and strategic joint ventures including sourcing R&D and technology alliances with the Americas. Over 70 audience members attended followed by a Cocktail Reception. The dialogue was uniquely interactive with a substantive question and answer session.
